Built in 1907 as a Sears Craftsman house, the Blue Moon served as a gracious private residence until 1981, when it was transformed into a unique dining environment. Our commitment to the legacy and character of the Blue Moon ensures that its four-decade tradition of excellence will continue for years to come.

Looking for a fun, yet sophisticated restaurant run by fascinating people who nourish your appetite - and a whole lot more? The Blue Moon offers an extraordinary dining and entertainment experience in a beautifully restored Victorian home that is, in itself, a work of art. Consistently recognized among the top restaurants in Delaware, the Blue Moon is the ideal destination at the Beach!
