Salute to Local Favorites!

Small Town Salute to Big Time Hero! Who hasn’t Cheryl given a smile to? An entire community showed appreciation on Cheryl’s ride through Downtown Rehoboth Beach on July 13, 2016. (Pictured are Carol Everhart, Cheryl Blackman and Larry Lanouette).

Ed Riggin...thanks for great chicken, great crabs and great times! Ed’s Chicken and Crabs was a Dewey Beach icon known throughout the State and beyond. The restaurant employed teenagers and locals and was a popular get-together spot.

Thank you Ed for all you have done and for being the type of individual who brought out the entire Town of Dewey Beach to show how much they care! (Pictured are Senator Ernie Lopez and Ed Riggin).

Visitor Has Positive Experience In Dewey Beach

I just wanted to thank you for providing my daughter, Lillian, with the opportunity to learn how to skim board yesterday. The free clinic was great for her. Evan was the perfect instructor for her to learn from; he was patient, positive, and encouraging. Thank you for working with me and our schedule to fit her in for a private lesson on our last day there. I wish we had more time for more opportunity for her to take a mini camp or lessons, but I am thankful that she had that time. I appreciate Evan being able to come down & give her a lesson despite the constraints of time, space, rules, etc.

I know that we are only up in Dewey for a week each year, but it is experiences like this that keep us coming back there. We will be sure to be in touch when we return next year. I also like to support smaller, locally owned businesses. Maybe my younger daughter will be ready to learn as well.

Please be sure to thank Evan again as well for us.

I wish you well in your business and hope it continues to grow.

Thanks, Cara Waller

This note was received by Jason Wilson of Alley Oop. The business offers free skimboard lessons during the summer in addition to camps and lessons. The instructor, Evan is part of the Ulsh family from the Dewey Beach Market.

Thanks For The Support

Thank you for all the help and support you give.

MEMBERS IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Quakertown Wellness

Quakertown Wellness was founded in 2007 by Sally Laux, L.Ac., and has grown to include several talented and experienced healers. In May 2016, the group has transitioned into a cooperative business model, led by Karyn Jennings, LMT, Lauren Mund, L.Ac, and Dr. Kim Furtado, N.D. There’s a designated space for group work. The group clinical space will host a wide array of classes and clinical services, and is also available for use by the community upon request.

Clinical services in the new space will include group acupuncture sessions with Lauren Mund, L.Ac. Serving patients with group/semi-private sessions is an effective way to increase access to care while reducing cost to clients for frequent recommended treatment sessions. Group counseling sessions will also be available, led by Catrina Stiller, LPCMH.

In addition to clinical services, there will be an ongoing calendar of classes and informational sessions. Starting this summer as well as this fall, Rev. Sue Greer, O.M. will be holding a six week series on meditation. The classes will be on various forms of meditation, including chanting. Kim Blanch, L.M., R.N. will also offer classes on Ayurvedic medicine in the fall.

The practitioner team is as follows: Catrina Stiller, LPCMH; Kim Blanch, LMT - RN; Kim Furtado, N.D.; Rev. Sue Greer, Healer and Spiritual Consultant; Karyn Jennings, LMT, NCTMB; Sally Laux, BSN, L.Ac.; Lauren Mund, L.Ac., Dipl. O.M.; and Bonnie Schuyler, LMT.

McDonnell and Associates

Sussex County native, Meghan M. Kelly, Esquire recently accepted a position with McDonnell and Associates in Bethany Beach, exclusively practicing real estate settlements.

Meghan attended LB Elementary, Selbyville Middle and Indian River High Schools before continuing her education at the University of Delaware. She received her juris doctorate from Duquesne School of Law in Pittsburgh, PA. After finishing law school and passing the Pennsylvania and Delaware bar exams, Meghan gained vast experience working for several law firms. She has acquired a vast knowledge of the law, representing clients in hearings and mediations, as well as in corporate law, bankruptcy, insurance defense, litigation, wills and estates and general litigation. She also worked as In-House Counsel to a home builder where she discovered her desire to pursue real estate law. “Most law suits are not about adult misbehavior, they’re merely about misunderstandings and mistakes. Performing real estate settlements is a more enjoyable way of helping people, although law suits have their place.” Meghan explained. She is delighted to find her dream job at McDonnell and Associates, P.A.

Meghan looks forward to serving Delaware Homebuyers and all of their real estate closings needs. McDonnell & Associates does have mobile capabilities and is happy to offer alternative settlement locations as an option at no additional fee. In addition, McDonnell and Associates, P.A. can provide settlement checks when done in the Bethany Beach office.

Visit the new McDonnell & Associates office in the Bennett and Realty Building at 34026 Coastal Highway, Bethany Beach or for more information call 302-362-6551.
